CASE NO. 1:07-CR-00079-NONE-SKO

STIPULATION TO CONTINUE STATUS
CONFERENCE, FINDINGS AND ORDER

DATE: February 15, 2022
TIME: 2 p.m.
COURT: Hon. Erica P. Grosjean

This case is set for status conference on February 15, 2022. On May 13, 2020, this Court issued General Order 618, which suspends all jury trials in the Eastern District of California until further notice. This General Order was entered to address public health concerns related to COVID-19. Further, pursuant to General Order 614, 620, 624, 628, and 630 and the CARES Act, this Court's declaration of judicial emergency under 18 U.S.C. § 3174, and the Ninth Circuit Judicial Council's Order of April 16, 2020 continuing this Court's judicial emergency, this Court has allowed district judges to continue all criminal matters to a date after May 1, 2020.¹

Although the General Order addresses the district-wide health concern, the Supreme Court has emphasized that the Speedy Trial Act's end-of-justice provision "counteract[s] substantive openendedness with procedural strictness," "demand[ing] on-the-record findings" in a particular case.

¹ A judge "may order case-by-case exceptions" at the discretion of that judge "or upon the request of counsel, after consultation with counsel and the Clerk of the Court to the extent such an order will impact court staff and operations." General Order 618, ¶ 7 (E.D. Cal. May 13, 2020).

1 Zedner v. United States, 547 U.S. 489, 509 (2006). “[W]ithout on-the-record findings, there can be no
 2 exclusion under” § 3161(h)(7)(A). Id. at 507. And moreover, any such failure cannot be harmless. Id.
 3 at 509; see also United States v. Ramirez-Cortez, 213 F.3d 1149, 1153 (9th Cir. 2000) (explaining that a
 4 judge ordering and ends-of-justice continuance must set forth explicit findings on the record “either
 5 orally or in writing”).

6 Based on the plain text of the Speedy Trial Act—which Zedner emphasizes as both mandatory
 7 and inexcusable—General Orders 611, 612, 617, 618, and 620 and the subsequent declaration of judicial
 8 emergency require specific supplementation. Ends-of-justice continuances are excludable only if “the 9 judge granted such continuance on the basis of his findings that the ends of justice served by taking such
 10 action outweigh the best interest of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial.” 18 U.S.C. §
 11 3161(h)(7)(A). Moreover, no such period is excludable unless “the court sets forth, in the record of the 12 case, either orally or in writing, its reason or finding that the ends of justice served by the granting of 13 such continuance outweigh the best interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial.” Id.

14 The General Orders and declaration of judicial emergency exclude delay in the “ends of justice.”
 15 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7) (Local Code T4). Although the Speedy Trial Act does not directly address
 16 continuances stemming from pandemics, natural disasters, or other emergencies, this Court has 17 discretion to order a continuance in such circumstances. For example, the Ninth Circuit affirmed a two-
 18 week ends-of-justice continuance following Mt. St. Helens’ eruption. Furlow v. United States, 644 F.2d
 19 764 (9th Cir. 1981). The court recognized that the eruption made it impossible for the trial to proceed.
 20 Id. at 767-68; see also United States v. Correa, 182 F. Supp. 326, 329 (S.D.N.Y. 2001) (citing Furlow to 21 exclude time following the September 11, 2001 terrorist attacks and the resultant public emergency).
 22 The coronavirus is posing a similar, albeit more enduring, barrier to the prompt proceedings mandated
 23 by the statutory rules.

24 In light of the societal context created by the foregoing, this Court should consider the following
 25 case-specific facts in finding excludable delay appropriate in this particular case under the ends-of-
 26 justice exception, § 3161(h)(7) (Local Code T4).² If continued, this Court should designate a new date

27 ² The parties note that General Order 612 acknowledges that a district judge may make 28 “additional findings to support the exclusion” at the judge’s discretion. General Order 612, ¶ 5 (E.D.
 Cal. March 18, 2020).

1 for the status conference. United States v. Lewis, 611 F.3d 1172, 1176 (9th Cir. 2010) (noting any
2 pretrial continuance must be “specifically limited in time”).

3 STIPULATION

4 Plaintiff United States of America, by and through its counsel of record, and defendant, by and
5 through defendant’s counsel of record, hereby stipulate as follows:

6 1. By previous order, this matter was set for status on February 15, 2022.

7 2. By this stipulation, defendant now moves to continue the status conference until March
8 29, 2022, at 2:00 pm before the Duty Magistrate, and to exclude time between February 15, 2022, and 9 March 29, 2022, under Local Code T4.

10 3. The parties agree and stipulate, and request that the Court find the following:

11 a) The government has represented that the discovery associated with this case has 12 been either produced directly to counsel and/or made available for inspection and copying.

13 b) Counsel for defendant desires additional time to consult with his client, discuss
14 case resolution, check with other courts regarding possible charges, and review the discovery.

15 c) Counsel for defendant believes that failure to grant the above-requested
16 continuance would deny him/her the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation, taking
17 into account the exercise of due diligence.

18 d) The government does not object to the continuance.

19 e) In addition to the public health concerns cited by General Order 611 and
20 presented by the evolving COVID-19 pandemic, an ends-of-justice delay is particularly apt in 21 this case because Counsel or other relevant individuals have been encouraged to telework and 22 minimize personal contact to the greatest extent possible. It will be difficult to avoid personal
23 contact should the hearing proceed.

24 f) Based on the above-stated findings, the ends of justice served by continuing the 25 case as requested outweigh the interest of the public and the defendant in a trial within the 26 original date prescribed by the Speedy Trial Act.

27 g) For the purpose of computing time under the Speedy Trial Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3161, et seq., within which a hearing must commence, the time period of February 15, 2022 to March 29, 2022, inclusive, is deemed excludable pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A), B(iv) [Local Code T4] because it results from a continuance granted by the Court at defendant's request on the basis of the Court's finding that the ends of justice served by taking such action outweigh the best interest of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial.
28

4. Nothing in this stipulation and order shall preclude a finding that other provisions of the Speedy Trial Act dictate that additional time periods are excludable from the period within which a trial must commence.

IT IS SO STIPULATED.

FINDINGS AND ORDER

Based on the parties' stipulation, the Court continues the status conference until March 29, 2022, at 2:00 pm before the Duty Magistrate Judge, and excludes time between February 15, 2022, and March 29, 2022, under Local Code T4 because the ends of justice served by taking such action outweigh the interest of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial.
